

FlaxSheen[®] Heel It

Based on Canola Oil
to Soothe and Protect

FlaxSheen[®] Heel It is a soothing botanical gel based on canola oil, which is naturally rich in Vitamin E and Essential Fatty Acids. This product helps to provide temporary relief for minor scrapes, cuts, and cracked hooves. FlaxSheen[®] Heel It provides deep moisturizing qualities which help to soften cracked hooves to prevent further damage while also forming a protective barrier which helps to decrease exposure to bacteria, pests, and environmental factors such as mud. This product is petrochemical free providing a safe alternative to petroleum jelly based salves. FlaxSheen[®] Heel It is safe to use on humans and animals alike. It makes a great treatment for cracked heels and is commonly used on the pads of dog paws to provide a salt barrier and prevent cracking over the dry winter months.

Contains:

Testimonial:

"Heel It is a great product for any kind of cut or abrasion. I found it to work better than "vulkatan" and it costs a lot less. I even use it in the winter on my own dry cracked hands. I love it, try it it works."
